

Curled Hair, Feathers, Tickings, &c.

OFFICE OF

A. L. HASKELL & SON,

100 & 102 HANOVER STREET,

Boston, April 26th 1879

Dear Garrison

90

It was good to read your noble letter in behalf of the colored refugees fleeing from oppression to the Land of Safety, may God's help be with them, be pleased to find enclosed my check for Twenty Dollars. I accept the thanks of your old friend.

A. L. Haskell

